 - A. Motions to Value Collateral (other than claims protected from "cramdown" by 11 U.S.C. § 1322(b)(2) or by the final paragraph of 11 U.S.C. § 1325(a)). Unless a written objection is timely filed with the Court, the Court may grant the debtor(s)' motion to value collateral as set forth herein.

24. Do you expect an increase or decrease in your expenses within the year after you file this form?

For example, do you expect to finish paying for your car loan within the year or do you expect your mortgage payment to increase or decrease because of a modification to the terms of your mortgage?

☐ No.

Yes.

Explain here: Debtors hope to budget better. H works in Baltimore on a daily basis. He has a very long commute, which accounts for his high commuting costs. His project should be done this year, so he will likely be able to work closer to home for lower costs.

Additionally, the medical expenses are on the higher side due to the pregnancy, and the children have medical issues. Their daughter attends occupational theraphy and has vision issues on top of other medical problems that need regular treatment.
